

JOB POSTING

Supervising Lawyer Law Students' Legal Advice Program

(full-time and part-time applicants will be considered)

The Greater Vancouver Law Students Legal Advice Society (GVLSLAS) operates the Law Students' Legal Advice Program (LSLAP) located at the UBC Faculty of Law in Vancouver. LSLAP is run by approximately 200 law students who provide legal assistance to over 4,000 low income individuals at 23 legal clinics throughout the Lower Mainland each year.

The Supervising Lawyer is responsible for training and supervising student volunteers, providing training in LSLAP's practice areas and all aspects of legal procedure and ethics, as well as regular supervision and advice on a wide range of legal matters, including criminal, residential tenancy, debt/debtor, small claims, consumer, employee/employer, employment insurance, workers' compensation, social assistance, wills & estates, contract disputes, and several other poverty law areas. In addition, the Supervising Lawyer is appointed as an adjunct faculty member at the University of British Columbia Faculty of Law and is responsible for assigning academic credit to student volunteers. For more information about LSLAP, please visit www.lslap.bc.ca.

GVLSLAS requires legal supervision for LSLAP for a one year contract from May 1, 2012 to May 1, 2013, with the possibility to renew afterwards. This position may be filled in one of two ways:

1. One Full-time position: Applicants may apply for this position to handle the full range of legal issues covered by LSLAP, including criminal and civil poverty law matters.
2. Two Part-time positions: Applicants may apply for a one of the following part-time positions:
 - a) a 2-3 day per week position to handle supervision for civil poverty law matters; or
 - b) a 2-3 day per week position to handle supervision for the criminal law matters.

GVLSLAS also welcomes joint applications from pairs of lawyers wishing to work collaboratively to cover the two part-time positions.

A minimum of 3 years of experience within the areas relevant to the position is required. Past experience as an LSLAP student volunteer is an asset.

Please submit application clearly indicating whether you are applying for the full-time or part-time position by Wednesday, February 15, 2011 via e-mail to:

Email: execdirector@lslap.bc.ca

Or by fax, to the attention of GVLSLAS Board President Alan Ip:

Fax: 604-688-8350

If you have any questions regarding this job posting, please contact:

Executive Director Ricky Bal Phone: 778-891-2252 Email: execdirector@lslap.bc.ca

Only applicants that are selected for interviews will be contacted.